About Givezy

What Givezy does for your charity

Givezy is a South African website and app for giving to registered charities. People find your charity, give once or every month, and keep every gift and s18A receipt in one account.

Checked by a person

We check every charity's registration and bank details by hand before it can take a gift. That check is what donors trust.

Free to list

No sign-up or monthly fee. The card provider's fee comes off each donation, and the rest goes straight to your own bank account.

s18A receipts made for you

If you are approved for s18A, each donor gets one s18A receipt a tax year, made for you.

Your donors, your thank-yous

You see what you need to thank donors and record their gifts. You never see a donor's ID number.

Your charity dashboard

See your donations and donors, thank donors, email them news, follow your deposits, and print a QR poster or add a give button to your website. Nothing to install.

The steps

Five steps, live within 5 working days

From approval to going live in a week.

1. Meet and demo — Before you start
   We show you Givezy and check it's a fit.

2. Quick approval — Day 1
   Send us your PBO number and SARS s18A approval. We check them with SARS and confirm by email, usually the same day.

3. Your details and training — Days 1 to 3
   Once approved, you add the rest of your details, your bank account and your s18A receipt template, so we can automate your receipts and IT3(d) reporting. At the same time you get short training videos to watch at your own pace.

4. Team training — Day 3 or 4
   A one-hour session with your team to answer questions and walk through your dashboard.

5. Pre-launch — Days 4 and 5
   We set up your account, import your donors, and send them an email inviting them to download the Givezy app and give through it.

After go-live

We check in after 30 days. After the tax year ends (end of February), we make your donors' s18A receipts for the year.
